closeness with each other when we do things as a family. I guess in the mountains is our favorite way. I enjoy hiking, tubing in the river, sun tanning, sewing and art work. I drew the cover of our school yearbook in Jr. High School. I find it restful drawing and hope to do more of it as the kids get older. I also like playing the clarinet. I became one of the best players in my class. As I went on I lost interest in it, but I'd like to pick it up again and get back into the swing of it.

We've had and are still having a happy life together. There'll be plenty of more things to come as our kids and we grow up together.

RAY AND GLADYS MILLER

Ray A. Miller was born June 11, 1912, in Heber City, Utah, to Moroni M. and Astrid Marie Hansen Miller. He was raised in Heber with a brother, Earl, and a sister, Venice. Ray's mother died when he was four and one half years old and an uncle, Al Miller, took the baby girl to raise with his family. His father married a second time and had another son, Wallace A., but when this baby was four months old, his mother died suddenly and the infant was raised by relatives so Ray never knew him as a brother.

Ray attended North Elementary School and graduated from Hatch High School in 1932. With the exception of one year in Salt Lake City, he spent his childhood and youth in Heber. Upon graduating, Ray began herding sheep. It was the time of the great depression and work was very hard to find. After a few years of herding, he got a job in the mines working in both Keetley and Park. He loved to go to dances, and at a dance one night he met a beautiful young lady named Gladys Marie Smith. He was very close with her and on December 24, 1936, she became his Christmas bride. A lady who later became their close neighbor in the Third Ward, Manila Patterson, was their witness to their marriage.

Gladys was born in Riverdale, (North Midway Road), Wasatch County, Utah, March 25, 1917, a daughter of John R. and Mary Leback Smith. She was one of nine children born to this couple. Others are John Lavant, Grace Elizabeth, Liza Livisa, Albert and Ida Ann, Melvina Adelaide, Fern and Isaac Arthur. These Lee and Barbara were married on February 3, 1961 in Heber, Utah. They lived the next four years in Salt Lake City where their first two children, Launa and Doug, were born. At this time, the computer industry was just beginning to develop and Lee was young enough to get into a field which has given him many challenges and success in his career.

The family lived in Port Hueneme, California for one and a half years, where Lee worked at the Point Mugu Pacific missile range. Their third child, Carolyn Kaye was born in Oxnard, California on October 27, 1966. When Carolyn was three weeks old, the family moved to Murray, Utah where they lived for two and a half years. Lee was given the opportunity to help start a new computer business in Vancouver, British Columbia, so the family headed there where they spent the next nine years. During this time, Lee worked as a management consultant and for the British Columbia Telephone Company. Their last child, Patricia Jean, was born in Burnaby, B.C. on January 13, 1971. The family was involved in many different activities, including scouting, team swimming, skating, soccer and dancing. It is beautiful country in B.C. and many weekends were spent touring and camping. The Murdocks love to camping.

Lee then decided he would like to see his family have the opportunity of living in a small town and establishing some roots, so they moved to Heber City in March of 1978. A year later, Lee was asked to do some more consulting work in B.C., so he spent the next year flying back and forth between Heber and Vancouver. Lee is now employed at Signetics in Orem as their Computer Services Manager.

Launa Lee was born October 19, 1961. She had the opportunity to be an exchange student in Brazil for one year and graduated from Hatch High. She served a mission to Seoul, Korea, is a swimmer, instructor and life guard and now has a summer swim team in Heber. Launa and Doug became emergency medical technicians (EMT's) with the Wasatch County Ambulance. It was at this time Launa met Steve Nielson from Midway, who was also an EMT, they were later married on November 26, 1985. Launa and Steve live in Midway and are attending BYU. Barbara later joined them in EMT and made it a family affair.

Douglas Calvin was born on May 5, 1963. He is an excellent jet pilot, obtaining his honorable discharge in 1958 with the rank of Captain.

In 1958 he met and married Elizabeth Vance, then a nurse at B.Y.U. Health Center. Vernon taught school in Salt Lake for years before coming to Wasatch County High School to continue his teaching career for several more years. Before their children were along, Vernon and Elizabeth traveled a lot, spending one full year touring and studying in Europe.

Vernon is a self-employed artist illustrator. For several years he filled a satisfying role as an illustrator of 16 volumes of L.D.S. Church history and 10 volumes of Bible stories. In addition to many other projects, he has painted a series of Wasatch County Historical paintings including one of the former old County Court House and the old Stake Tabernacle in the town square, the old, now demolished mill which occupied the corner of Center Street and Mill Street in earlier days, and one entitled "The Legend of Timpanogas." Vernon is now a teacher at Wasatch Middle School. Vernon is a member of the Rotary Club, an international service organization.

Elizabeth Vance Murdock was born to Robert and Anna Swarth Vance in Madera, Chihuahua, Mexico, December 3, 1924. She spent her High School years in Mesa, Arizona. She graduated from the Good Samaritan School of Nursing. Elizabeth worked as a registered nurse in the Heber Hospital and in doctor's offices and health center in Phoenix, Texas, California, Provo, Salt Lake and Mexico. Elizabeth is a member of the Wasatch County Board of Health and an Advisory Commission Member for Panogast Mental Health Center.

Elizabeth and Vernon are the parents of four children: Eric, married to Jaymae Stagg, Shaun Carlos, Amy, and Alisa. With their family Vernon and Elizabeth continue to travel wherever possible. They have been to many states, back to New Mexico for the Hill Cumorah Pageant, to Mexico to visit relatives numerous times and to Canada. In 1979 they made a memorable trip to Israel with Tom and Marva Watson.

In 1970 they bought the home built by Vernon's grandfather, Lewis Lindsay, at 489 East 600 South. Over the years they have added onto and remodeled the home and made it a lovely, special place for their family to enjoy.
